

INDIANA UNIVERSITY BLOOMINGTON
ONE HUNDRED NINETY-THIRD
COMMENCEMENT

FRIDAY, MAY 6, 2022

THE STAR-SPANGLED BANNER

O! say, can you see by the dawn's early light,
What so proudly we hailed at the twilight's last gleaming,
Whose broad stripes and bright stars through the perilous fight,
O'er the ramparts we watched, were so gallantly streaming?
And the rockets' red glare, the bombs bursting in air,
Gave proof through the night that our flag was still there;
O! say, does that Star-Spangled Banner yet wave,
O'er the land of the free, and the home of the brave?

HAIL TO OLD I.U.

Come and join in song together,
Shout with might and main;
Our beloved Alma Mater,
Sound her praise again.

Chorus

Gloriana, Frangipana,
E'er to her be true;
She's the pride of Indiana,
Hail to old I.U.!

—Joe T. Giles, Class of 1894

ONE HUNDRED NINETY-THIRD COMMENCEMENT

Indiana University Bloomington

Dear Graduates:

Congratulations on completing your advanced degree! This Commencement ceremony marks the culmination of your years of scholarly activity, diligent study, and exacting research. Let me add my best wishes to those of your family and friends whose love, encouragement, and faith have propelled you toward this wonderful day. The strength of that support helps all of us achieve our highest goals and deserves our deepest gratitude. Today is as much a day to share that gratitude as to celebrate.

Over the course of the years, it may have seemed as if this moment would never come. I am certain that each of you has faced challenges along the way, but I am equally certain that your professors and mentors have instilled in you skills in persuasion, reasoning, and critical inquiry that have helped you to overcome those challenges. Those are the very skills that will serve you best in a global environment of competition and change. With its many connections around the world, IU has helped prepare you to succeed in this environment.

With the completion of your graduate degree, you are extending the great traditions of Indiana University that have taken shape over more than two centuries. You and 750,000 other alumni are a proud and important part of this university's rich and living history. Wherever you go, Indiana University will always be your alma mater and will always welcome you back.

Again, congratulations and best wishes for the greatest success in the future.

Most sincerely,

Pamela Whitten
President

GUEST INFORMATION

FIRST AID AND RESTROOMS

The IU Health Center staffs a First Aid Room located in Room 160, just off the South Lobby in the East Corridor. The IU Health Bloomington Hospital Emergency Department and the Ambulance Service have personnel units strategically located through Simon Skjodt Assembly Hall to assist patrons. Emergency paramedic personnel will be able to provide immediate medical attention. If you require emergency medical assistance, please contact the nearest usher or police officer.

Simon Skjodt Assembly hall has public men's, women's, and all-gender restrooms located on the Lobby Level, Concourse Level, and Balcony Level. All restrooms are ADA accessible.

LOST AND FOUND

Recovered items will be collected by event staff. To check for lost items, please ask an usher for directions to the lost and found areas located in the First Aid Room of Simon Skjodt Assembly Hall. After Commencement, please call 812-855-4575 for help with lost or found items.

COMMENCEMENT TRADITIONS

Today's 193rd Commencement exercises at Indiana University Bloomington mark the joyous culmination and proud recognition of our graduates' academic achievements. The ceremony is rich in academic tradition and protocol.

ACADEMIC ATTIRE

The origins of academic dress date back to the twelfth and thirteenth centuries, when universities were taking form. The ordinary dress of the scholar, whether student or teacher, was the dress of a cleric. Long gowns were worn and may have been necessary for warmth in unheated buildings.

The assignment of colors to signify certain faculties was a much later development, and one that was standardized in the United States in the late nineteenth century. White, taken from the white fur trimming of the Oxford and Cambridge bachelor's hoods, was assigned to arts and letters. Red, one of the traditional colors of the church, went to theology. Green, the color of medieval herbs, was adopted for medicine, and olive, because it was so close to green, was given to pharmacy. Golden yellow, standing for the wealth that scientific research has produced, was assigned to the sciences.

Gowns

All candidates for degrees and those who hold these degrees, including university officials and faculty and visiting dignitaries, wear traditional gowns. Most are black, but some are brightly colored. The style of the gown indicates the highest degree held by the wearer, and the colors represent institutions and fields of study.

The gowns for bachelor's degree and associate degree recipients have a closed front and open sleeves.

The master's degree gown has extremely long, closed sleeves, from which the arms extend through a slit at the wrist; the end of the sleeve is square, with an arc cut away just above the bottom. The doctor's gown has velvet panels down the front and voluminous bell-shaped sleeves on which there are three velvet bars.

Caps, Tassels, and Hoods

Candidates for master's degrees wear square-topped caps—also called mortarboards—which are adorned with colored tassels appropriate to the school or division from which they are graduating. The same colors are used throughout the United States. They are:

Arts and Sciences—White
Business—Drab
Education—Light Blue
Informatics, Computing, and Engineering—Copper
Law—Royal Purple
Medicine—Kelly Green
Music—Pink
Nursing—Apricot
Optometry—Aqua
Public and Environmental Affairs—Peacock Blue
Public Health—Salmon
Social Work—Citron

Doctoral candidates may wear either a mortarboard or a velvet tam. Doctoral tassels are gold.

Velvet-lined hoods are worn by master's and doctoral candidates. The master's hood extends to the middle of the back, is edged in velvet in the same color as the tassel, and is lined with colors representing the institution from which the degree was earned. Indiana University hoods are lined with cream and crimson.

The doctor's hood is longer, has wider velvet edging, and fully exposes the lining. Students who are receiving their doctoral degrees are hooded by members of the faculty during the graduation ceremony.

Honor Cords for Veterans and Service Members

Graduating students who have served or are currently serving in the U.S. Armed Forces wear red, white, and blue cords.

MUSIC

Today's music is performed by musicians from the Indiana University Jacobs School of Music. The selections represent a range of genres, including traditional ceremonial pieces, such as several of the famous Pomp and Circumstance Marches by Sir Edward Elgar and Marching Song by Gustav Holst. In addition, the program consists of familiar marches and fanfares, and two Indiana University traditions: Hail to Old I.U. and The Viking March, which shares its melody with the IU fight song, Indiana, Our Indiana.
